2 Days Xi'an Private Tour Package

Trip overview

Journey back 2,000 years to the golden age of China with our 2-Day Xi'an Private Tour Package. As the eastern terminus of the Silk Road and the capital of 13 ancient dynasties, Xi'an offers a profound look into the soul of Chinese civilization.

This tour is headlined by a deep-dive exploration of the Terracotta Army, the "Eighth Wonder of the World," where you will witness thousands of life-sized clay soldiers guarding the tomb of China's first emperor.

But Xi'an is more than just ancient dust. You will cycle atop the massive Ancient City Wall—the largest and best-preserved of its kind—and lose yourself in the vibrant alleys of the Muslim Quarter, a sensory explosion of sizzling street food and cultural fusion. From the solemn Big Wild Goose Pagoda to the rhythmic sounds of local life, this 2-day experience captures the perfect balance between imperial grandeur and modern local charm.

Guided by a local history expert and supported by private transportation, you'll bypass the tourist traps and uncover the true legacy of the Qin and Tang Dynasties.

Itinerary

Day 1: The Emperor's Silent Army & Ancient Ramparts

Welcome to Xi'an, the ancient capital where China's imperial history begins. Your private guide and driver will meet you at the airport or high-speed railway station for a comfortable transfer to your hotel. After a refreshing local lunch, we dive straight into the heart of the Qin Dynasty.

- Afternoon: The Terracotta Warriors (UNESCO Heritage): We drive approximately one hour to the Terracotta Army Museum, often hailed as the "Eighth Wonder of the World."

  This massive archaeological site houses thousands of life-sized clay soldiers, horses, and chariots, each with unique facial features. Your guide will lead you through Pit 1 (the main army), Pit 2, and Pit 3, sharing the fascinating stories of the First Emperor's quest for immortality. You will also see the exquisitely restored Bronze Chariots and Horses, masterpieces of ancient metalwork.

- Late Afternoon: Cycling the Ancient City Wall: We return to the city to visit the Xi'an Ancient City Wall, the most complete and best-preserved ancient fortification in China. Originally built in the Ming Dynasty, this 14-kilometer rectangle surrounds the city center. For a truly memorable experience, we recommend cycling atop the wall. From this elevated vantage point, you'll enjoy a stunning contrast between the traditional courtyards of the old city and the bustling modern skyline outside the moat.

Accommodation: Selected Hotel in Central Xi'an

Meals: Authentic Shaanxi Style Lunch

Expert Tips for Day 1:

> The Terracotta Warriors pits can be crowded; your guide will help navigate the best viewing spots to avoid the largest tour groups. For the City Wall, we suggest visiting in the late afternoon to catch the sunset—the golden light hitting the watchtowers is spectacular for photography. If you enjoy local snacks, ask your guide to point out a 'Roujiamo' (Xi'an Meat Burger) shop on the way back to the hotel; it's a must-try local delicacy!

Day 2: Imperial Treasures & Silk Road Echoes

Today, we delve deeper into the golden ages of the Han and Tang Dynasties, exploring world-class artifacts and the spiritual landmarks that defined ancient China.

- Morning: A Journey Through 13 Dynasties: We begin at the Shaanxi Provincial History Museum, an architectural gem designed in the Tang style. As one of China's "Big Four" museums, it houses over 370,000 precious relics. Your guide will walk you through the history of the Silk Road, showcasing intricate gold and silver treasures from the Tang Dynasty and rare murals that offer a vivid window into ancient Chinese civilization.

- Midday: The Beacon of the Silk Road: Next, we visit the Giant Wild Goose Pagoda, a UNESCO World Heritage site and the most iconic landmark of Xi'an. Built in 652 AD during the Tang Dynasty, it was originally designed to house the Buddhist scriptures and statues brought back from India by the legendary scholar-monk Xuanzang. Stroll through the serene temple grounds and admire the elegant, tiered architecture that has stood for over 1,300 years.

- Afternoon: The Heart of the City – Bell Tower: After an authentic local lunch, we head to the very center of Xi'an to visit the Bell Tower. Built in the 14th century, it is the largest and best-preserved of its kind in China. Ascend the tower for a panoramic view of the city's four main avenues and learn about the ancient tradition of "Morning Bell and Evening Drum" that regulated the rhythm of life in the imperial city.

Meals: Hotel Breakfast & Traditional Xian "Biang Biang" Noodles Lunch

Expert Tips for Day 2:

> The Shaanxi Provincial History Museum is one of the most difficult museums in China to secure tickets for; your guide will handle the complex pre-reservation process for you. At the Giant Wild Goose Pagoda, if time permits, we suggest watching the North Square musical fountain show—one of the largest in Asia. Finally, the Bell Tower is located right next to the Muslim Quarter; if you have a late departure, it's the perfect place for some final souvenir shopping and street food tasting.
