Expert Tips for Day 1:

Please note that Xi'an is a major transport hub; our team monitors your flight or high-speed train status in real-time to ensure your driver is waiting, regardless of any travel delays. If you arrive in the afternoon and feel energetic, we recommend heading to the Grand Tang Dynasty Everbright City (near the Big Wild Goose Pagoda) in the evening. It is one of China's most spectacular pedestrian streets, featuring dazzling light shows and performances that bring the glory of the Tang Dynasty to life—a perfect first impression of the city's night charm.

Day 2: Treasures of the Tang Dynasty & Vibrant Local Life

Today is a journey through the golden age of Chinese history, exploring spiritual landmarks and the culinary heart of the ancient capital.

Morning: Civilized Roots & Sacred Heights: Your exploration begins at the Shaanxi Provincial History Museum, a "treasure house" of Chinese civilization. Wander through world-class galleries housing exquisite gold and silver wares from the Tang Dynasty and mysterious murals that bring ancient life into focus. Next, visit the iconic Big Goose Pagoda. Standing as a masterpiece of Buddhist architecture since 589 A.D., this UNESCO World Heritage site was built to house the sacred sutras brought back from India by the monk Xuanzang.

Afternoon: Panoramic Views & Sensory Feasts: After a local lunch, ascend the Bell Tower, the majestic center of ancient Xi'an. From the top, you can enjoy a panoramic view of the city's four main avenues extending toward the horizon. Then, dive into the bustling energy of the Muslim Quarter. This historic neighborhood is a sensory delight where you can witness the making of traditional snacks, admire the fusion of Islamic and Chinese architecture, and find unique silk or lacquerware souvenirs.

Evening: A Feast of Dumplings & Imperial Splendor: Your day concludes with a celebrated Xi'an Dumpling Dinner, where you will taste a variety of artfully shaped dumplings, each with a unique filling. Following dinner, be transported back to the 7th century with the Tang Dynasty Music and Dance Show. This spectacular performance uses traditional instruments and vibrant costumes to recreate the prosperous spirit and imperial grace of ancient China's most glorious era.

Accommodation: Hotel in Xi'an
Meals: Hotel Breakfast, Lunch, and Dumpling Dinner

Expert Tips for Day 2:

The Shaanxi Provincial History Museum is one of China's most popular sites and implements a strict daily visitor quota; your guide will coordinate the timing to ensure a smooth entry. In the Muslim Quarter, don't miss the famous "Roujiamo" (Chinese burger) or the refreshing plum juice—your guide can point out the most authentic stalls favored by locals to avoid the tourist traps. For the evening show, we recommend bringing a light wrap as the theater can be cool with air conditioning. If you wish to capture the Bell Tower's best angle, the exterior illuminations at night provide a stunning backdrop for photography.

Day 3: The Terracotta Army & Ancient City Ramparts

Today, you will stand face-to-face with one of the most significant archaeological discoveries of the 20th century before bidding farewell to this historic capital.

Morning: The Underground Empire: Your morning is dedicated to the awe-inspiring Terracotta Warriors Museum. After a comfortable drive to the outskirts of the city, you will explore the three massive excavation pits that house thousands of life-size clay soldiers, horses, and chariots, each with unique facial features. Your private guide will reveal the fascinating history behind this "ghost army" built to protect China's first emperor in the afterlife, including a close-up look at the incredibly detailed bronze chariots and horses.

Afternoon: Cycling Through History: After enjoying an "a la carte" lunch of authentic Shaanxi cuisine, return to the city to visit the Ancient City Wall. As the most complete and best-preserved ancient city wall in China, it offers a unique perspective of Xi'an. You can choose to walk or, as many travelers prefer, cycle along the wide top of the wall to enjoy panoramic views of the contrasting ancient rooftops and modern skyscrapers. It is a perfect way to witness the living history of the city.

Departure & Onward Journey: Your Xi'an adventure concludes this afternoon. Your private driver will escort you to the Xi'an Xianyang International Airport (XIY) or the railway station, ensuring you arrive with plenty of time for a stress-free check-in for your next destination.

Accommodation: / (End of Service)
Meals: Hotel Breakfast, Lunch

Expert Tips for Day 3:

To avoid the heaviest crowds at the Terracotta Warriors, we recommend an early start. Photography is encouraged, but please remember that flash is strictly prohibited to protect the ancient pigments on the figures. When visiting the Ancient City Wall, there is very little shade on top; we suggest bringing a hat and sunglasses, especially if you plan to cycle the full loop. Your guide will ensure your departure transfer is timed perfectly with local traffic conditions, allowing you to relax and enjoy your final hours in the city.
