Welcome to Shanghai! Upon your arrival at the airport or railway station, your private guide and driver will greet you and ensure a smooth transfer to your hotel. After a brief refresh, we dive into the city's rich cultural heritage and its most iconic waterfront.

Afternoon: Culture & Art at People's Square: We begin at People's Square, the symbolic center of the city. You will visit the prestigious Shanghai Museum, renowned for its vast collection of rare cultural relics. Explore its eleven state-of-the-art galleries, where you can marvel at ancient Chinese bronzes, exquisite ceramics, and delicate jade pieces spanning thousands of years of history.

Late Afternoon: The Pulse of Nanjing Road: From the museum, take a vibrant walk down Nanjing Road, China's premier pedestrian shopping street. Experience the bustling energy of the city as you pass a mix of historic department stores and modern luxury boutiques—a perfect place to witness the local lifestyle and pick up unique souvenirs.

Evening: Sunset at The Bund: We conclude our first day at The Bund, Shanghai's world-famous waterfront. Stroll along the Huangpu River to admire the grand "Gallery of World Architecture"—a stunning row of 52 colonial-era buildings. As the sun sets, watch the historic stone facades light up, facing the neon-lit futuristic skyline of Pudong across the river.
